PETRON CORPORATION WINS 8 PHILIPPINE QUILL AWARDS

Petron Corporation, the country's leading oil refining and marketing company, scored big wins as it bagged eight awards at the recently concluded International Association of Business Communicators' (IABC) 15th Philippine Quill Awards.

Petron took home a total of three Excellence and five Merit awards for its various initiatives.

Leading the roster of winners from Petron this year is the first-ever DOE-Petron Euro 4 Fuel Economy Run, which brought home the coveted Award of Excellence in the special events category. It also won a merit award both for customer relations and government relations.

Also recognized with Awards of Excellence are the Petron 2017 Wall Calendar (Publications category) and the company's 2016 national student art competition Vision Petron with the theme Tuklas Kapaligiran (CSR category).

Meanwhile, Vision Petron 16: Music Category (Year 1) and Vision Petron 16 collaterals emerged as Merit awardees in the CSR and internal communication category, respectively. Completing the list of winners is Petron's long-standing education program Tulong Aral ng Petron, receiving a Merit Award in the CSR category.

Mounted annually by IABC Philippines, the prestigious Philippine Quill Awards recognizes the highest levels of excellence in business communications. The awards ceremony was held at the Marriott Grand Ballroom on July 5. (30)
